Benjamin Wright Author and Public Speaker

Benjamin Wright, Esq. is a true Net pioneer. He has delivered over 500 speeches on electronic commerce and records since 1988 – including speeches in Hong Kong, Australia, Germany, France, UK, Malaysia, Colombia, Brazil, Taiwan, Switzerland and India – as well as authoring two books, The Law of Electronic Commerce and the newly released Business Law & Computer Security.

Mr. Wright is continually in demand around the globe as a public speaker on cyber-attacks, record-keeping and destruction, Internet contracts, e-commerce privacy, digital signatures, public key infrastructure (PKI), and biometrics law. He has been quoted and published as an e-commerce and information security expert in hundreds of publications worldwide, from the Wall Street Journal to the Sydney Morning Herald.

Experience

An attorney practicing from Dallas, Texas, Mr. Wright advises financial institutions, government agencies, Fortune 500 corporations and start-up technology companies on the law of technology and records.

In 2003, he advised the government of Sri Lanka on e-commerce, e-signatures and PKI law and policy. He has served as a consultant to a World Bank-sponsored project advising Indonesia on revision of its national laws to accommodate electronic commerce. In addition, he helped IBM as it built a root PKI certification authority for the Canadian Payments Association and PenOp, Inc., a biometric signature pioneer, in its development and marketing of e-signature technologies. On numerous occasions he has assisted the Mississippi Secretary of State with e-commerce law and regulation.

Finally, in July 2000, the United States Patent Office issued patent number 6,091,835 on electronic signature technology. Mr. Wright is named as a co-inventor.

Mr. Wright currently speaks for a variety of corporations, associations and government entities. If you are interested in having him speak at your next engagement, please contact him at 214-403-6642.
